WIFE KILLS WOMAN IN ROOM WITH HUSBAND

Then Became Hysterical and Expressed Great Regret Over the Affair.

(By Associated Press.)
CRIPPLE CREEK, COL. April 13.—Mrs.
S. W. Vidler, wife of a newspaper man, shot and killed Mrs. H. C. Dougias, of Colorado Springs, in the National Hotel

Colorade Springs, in the Addonal Rockhere to-day.

Mrs. Vidler, very much excited, rapped on the door of a room in which were
Mr. Vidler and Mrs. Douglas. Mr. Vidler opened the door. His wife pushed by him, and before she could be disarmed, shot Mrs. Douglas in the breast. Mr. and Mrs. Vidler were arrested. The couple, who have three children, have been separated.

After the shooting, Mrs. Vidler became hysterical, and expressed great regret over the affair. She was released on a $5,000 bond. No charge was made against her husband and he also was released.

DR. SAMUEL JOHNSON.

Great Lexicographer and Critic Subject of Dr. Trent's Lecture

Subject of Dr. Trent's Lecture.

Dr. Wm. F. Trent save in the Chapel of Richmond College last evening the third of his series of lectures on "Three Representative Writers of the Eighteenth Century." His topic for the evening was "English Litrature During the Second and Third Quarters of the Eighteenth Century. The career of Dr. Johnson as a representative man of letters and a literary dictator.

The speaker was very appropriately introduced by Dr. William H. Whitsit professor of Philosophy, who paid a glowing tribute to Poé as Richmond's most widely known son and urged the erection of a monument in his honor.

Dr. Trent's lecture was greatly enjoyed by the large audience present, and he was closely followed as he portrayed that wonderful man in spite of all his stults—Dr. Johnson the Que to the fact that we know him not through his works, as is the case wells Suite of Johnson or Maculay's essential elassic miniature in the Encommon disconception of Dr. Johnson is due to the fact that we know him not through his works, as is the case wells Sicott and Carlyle, but through Boswells Britannica. No edition of liss compilete works is obtanable in this scientific, except a very costly de have edition. Johnson would have level without Boswell. Dr. Johnson was not a great writer but a great man, who wrote for a living. Eoswell had a genulus to portray—a genius who would have been known without Johnson.

Johnson.

The lecturer then gave a short biography of Johnson, showing his rise to eminence out of poverty. His boorishness as well as his political and religious prejudices were fostered by his early vicis-On the appearance of his d ctionary he bestudes.

On the appearance of his d ctionary he became famous and took his place by the side of the dead Alexander Pope. This book, though faulty, is the basis of our modern lexicography.

In 1894 he became the center of the famous club composed of such men as Sir William Jones, Sir Joshua Reynolds, Garrick, the actor, James Boswell, Goldsmith, and others. Those he dominated, in spite of his unattractive manners, because of his great personality.

The baleyced, Latinish style of his earlier writings, as the Rambler, the Idler and Spectator, gave way in his lately earls to a more simple and a dicarestyle. His Rasselas was most in favor but is not so popular now. The Lives of the Poets in his best known work. Johnson was a great critic and was not only in symmathy, but in touch will most of those poets, about whom he wrote. His work is that of a man much larger than the men whose lives he was treating. The last lecture of this course will be given to-night in the College Chapel, The subject for to-night is Literature at the Close of the Century—William Cowper.

The lecture of last evening was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience that greeted Dr. Trent.

in Chicago Yesterday.

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, April 13.—Four men, three of whom are employes of Schwarzschild and Sulzberger, meat packers, and one an attorney for that corporation, were named in an indictment returned this afternoon by the Federal grand jury, which is investigating the alleged beet trust. The men indicted are Joseph Welssenbach, attorney for Schwarzschild and Sulzberger; B. S. Cusey, traffic manager for the company; deorge D. Hopkins, auditor for the company; Leo S. Joseph, emplayed in the provision department of the concern, It is charged that the four men obstructed and impeded Deputy Marshal A, A. Bach in efforts to serve a subpoena on Edwin B. Fish, a clerk employed by Schwarzschild and Sulzberger, by assisting him in leaving the jurisdiction of the court. Fish recently returned from Canada. The four men were taken into custody shortly after the return of the indictments, and were released in bonds of $1,000 in each

Murder on Monday.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Nan Patterson was brought into the Court of General was brought into the Court of General Sessions to-day by her own counsel to plead to a charge of conspiracy to get money from Caesar Young, the bookmaker. She is accused of having conspired with J. Morgan Smith and his wife, Miss Patterson's sister, to extort from the bookmaker. She was not allowed to plead to the charge, however, as Assistant District Attorney Rand asked Judge Foster that she be not arraigned, holding that it was unnecessary, Although Miss Patterson's counsel vigorusly objected to the delay, the court of dered that her pien to the charge be but over until Friday. She will be placed on trial again next Monday on the charge of having murdered Young.
